

NASTT No-Dig Show Information Related to COVID-19 Coronavirus

Due to the COVID-19 response situation going on throughout the United States and Canada, NASTT must unfortunately announce the postponement of the 2020 NASTT No-Dig Show, originally scheduled for April 5-9 in Denver, Colorado.

Despite our best efforts to keep things running as scheduled, the Colorado Convention Center has been instructed to cancel all events through mid-April, which unfortunately includes our planned conference. Further, space for our conference to be held later this year at the Denver Convention Center is not currently available. For these reasons we are beginning to look at alternatives to bring you a memorable and valuable trenchless event, in this, our 30th year of trenchless education.

“Our community has experienced significant impacts over the past few weeks which have escalated in the last 72 hours and include corporate travels bans, government travel bans, venues closing, and public events and gatherings postponed in order to protect the health and wellness of our citizens.

We are confident that we will be able to switch gears and make alternate arrangements for the 2020 NASTT No-Dig Show and we look forward to communicating these changes to you in the coming days and weeks.”

- Craig Vandaele, Chair NASTT Board of Directors

Solving complex challenges is nothing new to our industry. All of us here at NASTT are hard at work shifting directions and implementing creative approaches to bring our members, attendees, exhibitors, sponsors, and students the high-quality technical and educational content that you have come to expect from NASTT. We appreciate your trust and patience that we will be contacting you shortly with more details about our plans moving forward.

We want to assure you of our commitment to bringing our industry together again — safely — at our rescheduled/re-imagined 2020 NASTT No-Dig Show.

For additional information with respect to the postponement of the NASTT No-Dig Show, please visit the conference website at nodigshow.com and the Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) section as we have posted additional information to the FAQ we have received to date. The Board of Directors and the NASTT staff thank you all for your understanding and continued support of NASTT. We look forward to seeing you all soon!

Sincerely,

Matthew Izzard – NASTT Executive Director
Craig Vandaele – NASTT Board of Directors Chair
Michelle Hill – NASTT Program Director
